www.crosserloughparish.ie: Our new Crosserlough Parish Website www.crosserloughparish.ie is now up and active. Please enjoy it, use it, and let it be an outreach from our parish to the whole wide world.

GDPR regulations came into force on Friday, and every parish must be compliant with the regulations. Our Parish Data Privacy Notice is published prominently on the notice boards of our churches, and on our parish website. Because of the implications of GDPR we regret that it is no longer possible for us to post the names of our children or adults receiving the sacraments in our parish newsletter. We may congratulate them as a group but individual names may not be listed.

Drumkilly Hall: Requests are being received from individuals and groups who would like to book the Hall in Drumkilly for music or drama. We must select a management committee to oversee all aspects of Hall management and finances. A meeting will be called as early as possible. Please watch this space.
