The Wake: The “wake” receives its name from the intention of the family and the community to “stay awake”. We set aside time to pray and reflect together and support one another. We stop what we would normally be doing to mark this passage. The waking or staying awake is a holy time, for it is marked by our recollecting not only the life of the deceased but also the work of the Lord in our loved one's life. For generations, because of the fact that we had no churches the funeral liturgy took place in the home and the remains were brought to the graveyard directly. After the granting of Catholic Emancipation churches were built in every parish. Around the 1860's the bringing of the remains by bringing the body to the church began to be accepted as the norm and became known as the removal. One of the side effects of this was the family got some rest before the grief of the funeral the next day.

Entrance Hymn

Here I am Lord

I the Lord of Sea and Sky
I have heard my people cry
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Chorus

*Here I am Lord, is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night, I will go Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.*

I the Lord of wind and flame I will attend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save.

Chorus.

Recessional Hymn

Seek ye first the kingdom of God. And his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.
Hallelu, Hallelujah! x 2

Ask, and it shall be given unto
you. Seek, and you shall find.
Knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
Hallelu, Hallelujah! x2
