The Clouds Veil

1. Even though the rain hides the stars,
Even though the mist swirls the hills,
Even when the dark clouds veil the sky,
You are by my side.
2. Even when the sun shall fall in sleep,
Even when at dawn the sky shall weep.
Even in the night when storms shall rise,
You are by my side, You are by my side.

- ♦ Although most people we know have the basic needs of life met we all want more in material goods. Advertisers spend millions each year feeding our appetites for things to buy. Most of these items we do not really, properly speaking, "need" and would never have wanted at all were it not for the daily barrage of various kinds of ads. Most people when asked will say that they need just a little bit more money to be comfortable around 10 % more. When they do get that 10 % they want just another 10 %. Research indicates that we eventually get used to whatever level of financial success we achieve and then begin to seek higher levels of affluence. We tend to compare ourselves with those who are richer than we are, rather than the vast numbers who live in poverty. Many of us get sucked into consumerism. Consumerism is a view of the human person that reduces us to what we buy and consume. What really counts the ultimate good of life is what can be bought and sold. And so we tend to look at those with two cars and three TV's and they in turn compare themselves to those who have the newest model of car, bigger houses and the latest plasma screen TV's and so on. John Stossel, David Myers,
- ♦ September 29th - Feast of the Archangels - Angels are part of nearly every religion's belief system. Most of our understanding of the Angels comes to us as revealed by the Jewish religion. Gabriel is considered to be the number one followed by Michael and Raphael. The next level of Angels is the type known as the ministering Angels which we know as the cherubim and the seraphim and their function is to help God administer the universe. The seraphim have three sets of wings who guard God's throne. They are so called the word mean burning and their devotion to God is so great as it is a burning love. The cherubim are Angels with human or animal characteristics and their function is to guard sacred places and continually to praise God.
- ♦ October 2nd Feast day of the Guardian Angels: God has given us a special angel for our protection and assistance both in soul and body especially at the time of our death. 'O Angel of God my guardian dear. To whom God's love commits me here. Ever this Day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen'
- ♦ Each parish is encouraged to plant a tree in the church grounds of all churches in the diocese during the month of September. Bishop Martin has asked that the pastoral council in each parish look after this. This is playing our part in saving the earth. Tree planting - Drumkilly Church - Wednesday 29th Sept; Kilnaleck and Crosserlough Church - to be confirmed.
- ♦ Kilnaleck Social Services: Personal Alarms available to people over 65 living alone or living with another vulnerable adult. For application form and details contact Colette - 086 0634805
