Comfort

*When your heart is sad and lonely and your friends seem so far away,
Turn to him who is all holy, And He'll drive your cares away
When a dear one seems to fail you, When for friendship true you long.
Confide in Him, Who is all true. And He'll right your every wrong
Jesus' heart is your true refuge. To him you can always flee,
Even when your hopes are sinking. He will then a True Friend be.
He will soothe your lonely spirit, He will love and bless and say
"Come to Me and I will comfort You, today and every day."*

Covid Restrictions: Tony Holohan has advised that where possible people should meet in groups of five and no more. Maybe its time we listened to this advice, so that we can have a Happy Christmas.

The ESRI the economic and social research institute produced a paper in May looking at adolescent behaviour. One of the things it found was that family structure makes a difference. It reported "that family structure emerges as having a significant and consistent relationship with adolescent behaviour. This particular report points out that children benefit when their father is actively involved in their life.

Special Collection: We have prayed over the last few weekends in the prayers of the faithful for the starving people in East Africa. Trócaire has recommended that a special collection to help ease their plight will be taken up next weekend in all Churches. Collection will be provided at the front of the altar.

The Bishops of Ireland will undertake a pilgrimage to the International shrine in Knock and will con-celebrate Mass for all those who have died in our country during the pandemic, this Sunday 14th November at 3.00 pm. Kilmore Diocese will be represented by Bishop Martin and the Cullen family, from Oughteragh parish, who have been recently bereaved.

There is a Place

There's a Time for Remembering, a time to Recall the trials and the Triumphs, The Fears and the Falls. There's a time to be grateful for moments so blest, The Jewels in our memory where love is our guest. There is treasure in fields, there is treasure in our skies there is treasure in our dreaming from the soul to the eye. For where ever we wonder in the light of God's grace and for all whom we remember there will ever be a place

Going Home, Going Home

Going home, going home, I am going home. Quiet like, some still day, I am going home It's not far, just close by. Through an open door. Work all done, care laid by, Never fear no more Mother's there expecting me, Father's waiting too. Lots of faces gathered there All the friends I knew (2)
