I am the Kings Good Servant but God's first.

Sir Thomas More was the Chancellor of England during the reign of King Henry V111 and he was a good friend of King Henry. But this friendship took a sharp nose dive when Henry appealed for an annulment of his marriage to Catherine of Aragon to the Pope. The pope refused to give Henry the Annulment. Now he needed the break - up of his Chancellor But St. Thomas knew that Catherine was married to Henry's brother who died young and Thomas refused to support Henry in his plans to marry Ann Boleyn. So Thomas resigned his post as Chancellor on 17th May 1532. The King was furious and stripped Thomas of his authority even though he had been the second most powerful man in the Realm. For Thomas it was a matter of conscience. Two years later he was arrested and sent to the Tower of London. He had refused to take the oath of Allegiance profound by the King. The charge was high treason punishable by execution. Now at that time the condemned person was offered an opportunity to speak a few last words. Thomas spoke out to the assembled people—"I am the Kings Good servant but God's First!!" St. Thomas More was beheaded on 6th July 1543

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Come Christians all, rejoice and sing.
With thankful hearts your praises bring
Risen is now our Lord and King
Alleluia.

On Sunday morn, at break of day.
The sad disciples made their way.
Seeking the place where Jesus lay.

Now let us thank the lord most high,
And with our praises fill the sky.

Recessional Hymn

Seek ye first the kingdom of God. And his righteousness,
and all these things shall be added unto you.
Hallelu, Hallelujah! x 2
Ask, and it shall be given unto you. Seek, and you shall find.
Knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
Hallelu, Hallelujah! x2

Love is his Word

Love is his word, Love is his way,
Feasting with men, fasting alone.
Living and dying, rising again,
Love, only love is his way.

Richer than gold is the love of my Lord: Better than splendour and Wealth

Love is his way, love is his mark,
Sharing his last Passover Feast
Christ at his table, host to the
