♦ The Synodal Assembly in Athlone

- ♦ You may be aware that there was an All-Ireland gathering in Athlone last week of the diocesan Synod groupings. The results of the findings of the meeting will be sent to Rome for the consideration of Pope Francis. One of the many ideas that emerged from the meeting was the need for an ambitious plan of adult faith formation and there was a need to work on this notion of the church to have better outreach to help people grow in faith. Also the contributions emphasised a more inclusive Church reaching out to the margins which is at the heart of the model of a missionary church. One of the heartening things that emerged was the fact that many young people spoke of having drifted away from the faith and having rediscovered their original connectedness to the Church. Time and time again in the Synodal replies people have expressed the fear that this process will go nowhere. But trust is a crucial issue here too. No one expects the level of change to come overnight but we can hope that it will come. While we await the outcome of these deliberations we can change ourselves if we want to.

- ♦ Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow, Creeps in this pace from day to day Out out brief candle, life's but a walking shadow A poor player that struts his hour upon the stage And then is heard no more. Macbeth

1. Oh the love of my Lord is the essence of all that I love here on earth. All the beauty I see he has given to me and his giving is gentle as silence.

2. Everyday; every hour, every moment have been blessed by the strength of his love. At the turn of each tide he is there at my side. And his touch is as gentle as

I have Loved you

I have loved you with an everlasting love.

I have called you and you are mine x 2

1. Seek the face of the Lord and long for him.
He will give you his light and his peace. Seek the face of the Lord and long for him. He will bring you his joy and hope.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee. How great thou art. How great thou art! Then sing my soul my saviour God to thee: How great thou art!
How great thou art!
