Moses flees the Anger of Pharaoh

Part of Moses work was in the 'Brick Yards' of the Pharaoh, and on one occasion he came across two men fighting, and he intervened in the row. One was an Egyptian and the other was a Jew. In the skirmish the Egyptian was killed by Moses. Moses had him buried in the sand. Time went by and another row broke out, this time it was between two Jews. And Moses intervened and one of the men said to Moses "are you going to kill me like the way you killed the Egyptian". This comment or the fact that the Jew indicated that he knew Moses was not an Egyptian but a Jew. Now that Moses knew that his identity was exposed, fled to save his life. Eventually he was taken into the family of Jethro to act as a shepherd. One day while he was shepherding Jethro's flock he came across an unusual sight—a bush that burned without losing its size, and so Moses approached when he was called by his name twice. Then he was ordered to take off his shoes, because he was on Holy Ground. God spoke to Moses and told him how aware he was of the difficult circumstances in which the Jews had to live. Then he tells Moses that he is the man who will set his people free. Needless to say Moses doesn't want anything to do with this huge responsibility. But Moses claimed that he was never a good speaker and could he please send someone else and so Aaron his brother is given the task of speaking to the Pharaoh. So Aaron and Moses set off to confront the Egyptian Pharaoh. Ramesses 2.

In Bread we Bring you Lord

In Bread we Bring you Lord, our bodies labour in wine we offer you our spirit grief.

We do not ask you Lord who is my neighbour? But stand united now one in belief. Oh we have gladly heard your word your Holy word . And now in answer, Lord. Our gifts we bring. Our selfish hearts make true. Our failing faith renew. Our lives belong to you. Our Lord and king.

There is a Place

There's a Time for Remembering, a time to Recall The trials and the Triumphs, The Fears and the Falls.
There's a time to be grateful for moments so blest ,
The Jewels in our memory where love is our guest.
There is treasure in fields, there is treasure in our skies there is treasure in our dreaming from the soul to the eye.

For where ever we wonder in the light of God's grace and for all whom we remember there will ever be a place

Going Home, Going Home Going home, going home, I am going home. Quiet like, some still day, I am going home It's not far, just close by.
Through an open door. Work all done, care laid by, Never fear no more Mother's there expecting me, Father's waiting too. Lots of faces gathered there All the friends I knew (2)
