Lord McCaulay the great British historian who was a Protestant pointed out that the catholic church was there when all the governments of the world began and all the kings were crowned and has continued to stand while they have fallen. The church existed long before Northern Europe was civilised. McCauley observed that someday a visitor from New Zealand may sit among the ruins of London sketching what is left of St. Paul's Cathedral and the Catholic church will still be there. After considerable study with some admitted regret as a Protestant, I must confess that I consider the Roman Catholic Church to be of divine origin because no mere human institution run by ordinary people with limited ability could have lasted two weeks. Thomas Babington McCaulay

1. Morning has broken

Morning has broken, like the first morning. Blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing, praise for the morning. Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

2. Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven. Like the first dewfall on the first grass. Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden. Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

I have Loved you

I have loved you with an everlasting love. I have called you and you are mine x 2

Seek the face of the Lord and long for him. He will give you his light and his peace. Seek the face of the Lord and long for him. He will bring you his joy and hope.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee. How great thou art. How great thou art! Then sing my soul my saviour God to thee: How great thou art! How great thou art!
