There is no such thing as a value—neutral education. All schools express an ethos by their choices, actions and attitudes. Every school has a characteristic spirit either by design or by default. There is no such thing as teaching and learning from a neutral standpoint. There is more to life than what we can see on the surface. Part of the function of the Catholic school is to help pupils search for and discover this meaning for themselves. If one does not believe in God is that it? Our God came among us as a baby, born in the humblest of circumstances raised by Mary and Joseph. This God taught of a reign of love and peace and justice for all people. A Catholic school would be failing this cornerstone belief if it will not introduce children to God through the New Testament especially through the use of Jesus, stories of the New Testament. Another important pillar that can contribute enormously to the spread of a Catholic school is that of sacramental imagination. Those moments when we notice or experience God in our lives are referred to as sacramental moments. The experience of being able to discern the sacred in the ordinary, is something which needs to be developed in each child individually. *Amalee Meehan

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

1. Morning has broken

Morning has broken, like the first morning. Blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing, praise for the morning. Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

Be Still My Soul

Be still my soul, the Lord is always near thee.
Been patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God, to comfort and to cheer thee in every change he faithful remains.
