There is an old American Indian saying that reminds us that to truly understand another human being we must first walk a mile in his moccasins. To this we could add the suggestion that we cannot walk in another's moccasins, until we first take off our own. We have to make a real effort as listener's to get out of ourselves, to unshackle ourselves from our personal preoccupations and to donate our presence and our availability. It is very different for another person to truly understand us. Often times we become good listeners because life has broken us in different ways or in one peculiar way. But there are a group of people who are good listeners because finding a listener was crucial for them. These listeners are known as Alcoholic Anonymous. Their experience has helped them and their wisdom is - "We are as sick as we are secret" and the other side is a positive expression - "We are healthy and whole, as we are open and honest with ourselves and with others".

Be Still My Soul

Be still my soul, the Lord is always near thee.

Been patiently the cross of grief or pain.

Leave to thy God, to comfort and to cheer thee in every change he faithful remains.

Walk in the Light

1. Lets all join together

in communion sweet
Walk walk in the light

And love one another
Till the Saviour we meet.

Walk, walk in the light

Walk in the light (3)

Walk in the light of God

Make me a channel of your peace

1. Make me a channel of your peace

Where there is hatred let me bring your love

Where there is injury, your pardon Lord

And where there is doubt true faith in You
