Maybe you have watched a tightrope walker on the TV . You probably noticed that the performer carried a balance bar. Ever so carefully he moved the bar from side to side in order to keep his balance. Now life is something like this for us. You and I are negotiating the difficult if different course of our lives. Life means action and action means other people. Other people means there will be some friction and friction often results in stress. Some of this stress is helpful and positive. Some of it is negative and harmful. We badly need our balance, So we wonder what it is for the tightrope walker to take such a risk. Maybe we should take a spiritual risk and so become a free person, breaking free from our fears. But as the IKEA advert says “Don't do this at Home”

1. Morning has broken

Morning has broken, like the first morning. Blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing, praise for the morning. Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

2. Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven. Like the first dewfall on the first grass. Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden. Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

I have Loved you

I have loved you with an everlasting love. I have called you and you are mine x 2

Seek the face of the Lord and long for him. He will give you his light and his peace. Seek the face of the Lord and long for him. He will bring you his joy and hope.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made

I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus: Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee. How great thou art. How great thou art! Then sing my soul my saviour God to thee: How great thou art! How great thou art!
