Same Old Same Old

All of us have comfort zones. The area in which we are comfortable. These comfort zones apply to the way we dress, the emotions we are comfortable express the things which we will try. The depths to which we reveal ourselves, our openness to change and so forth. As long as we stay within these comfort zones we just keep repeating what we have always done. We don't change. We don't grow. Everyday is pretty much the same as the day before and every tomorrow is pretty much like today. We like our comfort zones even though the definitely shrink the world in which we live. We know our way around inside our comfort zones. We know how to cope with the things we encounter in our familiar comfort zone, so if I want to leave my comfort zone the good news is that the key is on the inside and I can let myself out. The sky is the limit!!!!

Make me a channel of your peace

1. Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is hatred let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there is doubt true faith in You
Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul

Be Still My Soul

Be still my soul, the Lord is always near thee.
Been patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God, to comfort and to cheer thee in every change he faithful remains.
