The Seal of Confession

The 14th Century produced a martyr to the seal of confession the great St. John of Bohemia. He was confessor to Queen Jane of Bohemia. Her husband Wenceslaus the Fifth wanted to know the sins his wife confessed. St. John refused and was then tortured and put in prison. He was put on the rack and his sides burned with red hot irons and still refused to break the seal of confession. He was tied—hands and feet and drowned in the city river loyal to the seal.

The Shepherd and the Wolf

A shepherd by who watched a flock of sheep near a village, brought out the villagers three or four times by crying out “Wolf! Wolf” and when his neighbours came to help him, laughed at them for their pains. The wolf however did come at last. The shepherd boy now really alarmed shouted in an agony of terror. “Pray do come and help me” The wolf is killing the sheep;” but no one paid any heed to his cries. The wolf having no cause of fear, at his leisure savaged the whole flock. So there is no believing a liar when he speaks the truth!!!

Make me a channel of your peace

1. Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is hatred let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there is doubt true faith in You

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul

Be Still My Soul

Be still my soul, the Lord is always near thee.
Bring patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God, to comfort and to cheer thee in every change he faithful remains.

Quietly, peacefully let me rest in you.

Quietly, peacefully lead me back to you.

In my weakness I have strayed, drifting far from you.

In your goodness steady me, Light my path to you.
