And he went away Sad!

This gospel today is a record of one of the few people that Jesus lives away. On the face of it the young man has good motives for wanting to become a follower of Jesus. He is enthusiastic to do so, as the gospel records he runs up to Jesus. He then kneels before Jesus indicating the regard for Jesus. But there is no happy ending to this story as he goes away sad. He is possessed by his possessions.

The walled cities had a number of high gates which were closed at night. But one of these gates had a very small opening referred to as the "eye of the needle". This was made to allow a camel to enter but the shape of the opening would not allow the camel to go through with anything to be carried—his load would have to be shed!!!!

1. Morning has broken

Morning has broken, like the first morning. Blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing, praise for the morning. Praise for them springing fresh from the world

I have Loved you

I have loved you with an everlasting love. I have called you and you are mine x 2

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.
